The Legend is Awakening
Rooms & Suites
Our ambition was to create a unique place where anyone could enjoy luxury and comfort while feeling cherished by a warm and familiar environment.

The architect found the right tone that will charm a diversified clientele, thanks to the comfort and elegance of this unique hotel, where modernity and refinement converge.

The 389 rooms and suites are now being furnished and, once complete, will evoke the idea of a sublime Palace designed to welcome the discerning travellers of the world.

The interior design reflects the perfect idea of the classical French style which is recognizable, among all, by harmonious settings of paintings, furniture, and a range of decorative objects.

In this issue, we invite you to discover rooms and suites of the Emerald Palace Kempinski.
Fresh, iconic, inspiring, original and utterly magnificent. At the Emerald Palace Kempinski, a unique and delightful experience awaits.

While walking to their accommodation, guests will enjoy the grand European splendor of regal hallways, accentuated by Kempinski’s famous art of hospitality.

Public areas leading to the rooms and suites are adorned with marble, more than 36,000 sq.m. of plush carpets sourced from Ireland and Italy, and are dressed in the most noble materials.

Each door is richly decorated with intricate golden ornaments, echoing the design of wide airy corridors, and complementing the atmosphere of the warmest welcome.

The designers of the Palace wanted to give the illusion that all elements of decoration were accumulated over the years, as in a private mansion with a hundred year-old history. They visited the greatest European manufactures in order to choose carefully every element of the decoration.

All the armchairs, tables, chandeliers, curtains, paintings, tapestries and ornaments will create over time the legend of the Palace and celebrate European decorative arts.

The in-room technology is designed to complement the seamless experience. High-speed Wi-Fi will keep guests connected in every part of the resort, while international sockets and intuitively designed, state-of-the-art interactive systems on more than 530 LED screens will appeal to international travellers of any age.
It is all about unique details of each room and suite. The luxurious fabrics were sourced individually from the finest European manufactures.
The 19 luxurious Mezzanine Suites boast large, airy two-story-high windows looking out to unparalleled views of the sea. Each of these spectacular suites measures up to 135 sq.m. and offers a unique dimension of comfort.

With their unique, bi-level layout, each of them features a spacious living room and a master bedroom, complete with a large closet.

High ceilings, a pleasing harmony of textures and colours, silk-threaded wallpaper, refined crystal chandeliers and the carefully selected furniture, made of natural wood and marquetry, will embody palatial opulence at its finest.
Pure splendour will introduce suites with their outstanding level of refinement. The interiors will combine couture-house fabrics with eclectic, vintage finds to capture the very essence of elegance.
With their elegant curves and pure lines, the prestigious suites of the Emerald Palace Kempinski will become the epitome of sophisticated contemporary design, featuring fine art and precious materials. All of them will offer a wonderful sense of space and comfort.

Their signature décors will become a favorite destination among the famous and powerful. Francesco Molon furnishings will reflect their personality of absolute sophistication with the tranquility of sweeping views over the sea.

Most suites offer connecting doors to ensure maximum flexibility for larger parties. Private kitchenettes with separate entrances are well-planned to allow private chefs and butlers to cater to any guest request in the most efficient and discrete manner.
